Melvin A. Hall Advanced in the British

Bellows Falls, Feb. 25.-Local friends have received news of the rapid pro-motion of Melvin A. Hall, son of William A. Hall, a former prominent local manufacturer, who for the past few years has lived in London. Young Hall was born in Bellows Falls in 1889. When the European war broke out he was in Belgium, and at once enlisted in the Belgian army, being aid and chauffeur to King Albert. Later he was transferred to the British army. made lieutenant and then captain. He has been cited three times for gallantry and for services during the invasion of Belgium was made a chevalier of the Order of the Belgian Crown. He is now with the British army in France.
